

Dr. G. N. GUTHRIE, Jr.

DENTIST

All Work is Fully Guaranteed

Gibson Building, Down Stairs
Phone at Office and Residence

COOKEVILLE, - TENN.

Miss Hallie Jared has returned from Gentry.

R. H. Lee of Smithville was in the city this week.

Ethel Jared of Buffalo Valley was in the city this week.

Mrs. Jesse Jared of Chestnut Mound was in town Wednesday.

Keith, Thomas & Co. of Algood have the cheapest lumber in this section.

There will be a decoration at the Brown's Mill graveyard next Sunday.

Will Bryant came up Sunday from Chestnut Mound—to see his girl.

R. W. King, town marshal of Monterey, was here on business Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hamilton spent Sunday with friends in Lebanon.

Andy McCloud of Monterey, R. 1, made this office a pleasant call today.

Mrs. Walder's music class gave a recital at the Crawford House Friday night.

Mrs. J. W. Holladay and children of Sparta visited in this city last Saturday.

I. P. Judd spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Barnes of Buffalo Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Clark of Algood were in Cookeville Friday afternoon.

Miss Willie Moore was the guest of Miss Edith Ault at Harri-man last week.

The Cookeville Fair will be held Sept. 7, 8 and 9 this year, earlier than usual.

Mrs. C. F. McCaleb of Gentry visited friends and relatives in this place first week.

Miss Bertha Ensor's music pupils gave a recital at her home last Thursday night.

Keith, Thomas & Co. of Algood will sell you lumber cheaper than anybody else.

The Cookeville and Monterey baseball teams will cross bats here Saturday, May 20.

Miss Mason's class will give a recital at the auditorium next Saturday night, May 20.

J. O. Holladay left today for Gentry and Chestnut Mound where he will visit friends and relatives.

Jas. W. and J. S. Bumablough of Sparta, Route 8 were in the city Wednesday on business.

M. V. Lewis of Route 2 sends the Herald to his sister, Mrs. E. J. Jaquess, Munday, Texas.

J. M. Dowell is finishing a very convenient brick cemented cellar with smokehouse over it.

Howard Grimsley has taken the position as carrier on Route 7 in place of Tom Lee, resigned.

The pupils of Miss Mamie Morgan will give a musical recital at the schoolhouse on Friday night.

Lumber for sale at lower prices than you can get elsewhere, by Keith, Thomas & Co., Algood, Tenn.

See or write the Singer man and he will deliver one at your door on approval. Ask your neighbor who has a Singer.

Jno. E. Oliver, deputy state fire marshal, was in Cookeville Monday shaking hands with his many friends.

Joseph Phifer of Dry Valley has been in poor health for several months and is very feeble at present.

Thos. J. Lee, Jr., has bought the store of Jno. E. Oliver at Gabbatha and will continue the business.

A number of young folks "stormed" Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Maloney at their home on Brown street Monday night.

The 17th annual session of the Upper Cumberland Medical Society will be held at Monterey next Tuesday and Wednesday, May 23 and 24.

Harrison Starnes of Elmer, Okla., is here visiting his father, Jere Starnes. His daughter and two little sons are with him.

Little Miss Allie Mai Holladay will return home in a few days after spending five weeks with her uncle, J. C. Jared, at Gentry.

Haskell Womack has taken a position with Montgomery, Moore & Co. of Nashville, and will travel East Tennessee and parts of Virginia and Kentucky.

We have received a subscription from Mrs. Sallie A. Ellis, Walpole, Ill. Mrs. Ellis was formerly a resident of Putnam county, and is postmaster at Walpole.

Criminal court is in session with Judge J. M. Gardenhire presiding. There is a long list of cases on the misdemeanor docket, but no important cases for the term.

John B. Denny of near Buffalo Valley fell and broke his hip last Friday. He is 86 years old, and the injury may prove fatal. Mrs. S. M. Dietz of this city, his daughter, is with him.

Miss Wilkie Lankford of Hilham is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. A. Maloney of this city.

The Confederate reunion was held in Little Rock, Ark., this week, with large attendance of veterans and visitors. The next reunion will be held in Macon, Ga., in May, 1912.

While the sun of prosperity is shining is the time to save for the rainy days that are sure to come. Call at our bank and let us talk the matter over with you.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK.

Arthur Byrne, who has been attending the dental department of University of Tennessee, received a junior medal. Arthur is a close student and we do not put such honors past him.

Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Doss left Wednesday for a visit in Sumner county. Beginning Sunday, Bro. Doss will be at Carthage where he will assist in a revival to be conducted by Bro. Cotton. The meeting to continue about ten days.

R. L. Farley bought the Joe Jared farm near Nashville last week and has transferred it to other parties. This is a valuable farm, consisting of 620 acres of bottom land. The price paid by Mr. Farley was $35,000.

Twenty girls wanted by Putnam Overall Mfg. Co. of Cookeville, to operate machines. Must be of good character. Can earn good wages and get board at low rate. We are putting in 15 new machines, so please apply at once before places are taken.

The Third District Sunday School Convention was held at Union Grove with good exercises and a large crowd in attendance. Dinner was served on the ground. All Sunday schools were urged to send delegates to the Putnam County Sunday School Convention which will meet at Post Oak Shade, a Baptist church, near Double Springs, on Saturday, May 27th.

The graduating exercises of the city school will be held next Monday night in the auditorium. A class of 14 get diplomas: Gretchen Grace Boyd, Lovie Brown, Vesta Mae Brown, Mary Chote, Anna Dudney, H. Clay Franklin, Constance Gregory, Evangeline Glover, Willette Hutcheson, Gideon Lowe, Harvey Ragland, DeFord Vanhooser, Jennie Lee Williams and Louise Yeargan.

J. R. Douglass and Mrs. Avo Douglass have returned from Los Angeles, Cal., where they had been for some time. They went by the Southern Pacific and came back by way of Portland, Oregon; Seattle, Wash.; over the Northern Pacific to St. Paul, Minn.; and from there to Chicago, Nashville and home. Miss Alma Hinds, who had been in California for several months, accompanied them home.

Makes Home Baking Easy

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

The only baking powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

NO ALUM, NO LIME PHOSPHATE

Pippin Schoolhouse

We are having plenty of nice weather and farmers are almost through planting corn in our community.

Sunday school at Post Oak Shade is progressing nicely with a good attendance.

Mrs. America Dyer and little daughter visited James Pippin and family Sunday.

Miss Lou Dyer has returned home from Cookeville to spend the summer.

A large crowd attended the singing at Post Oak Sunday.

Miss Dora Dyer has been on the sick list a few days.

GUESS WHO.

Sparta, Route 8

Sunday school is progressing nicely at this place.

Jeff and Kellie Bohannon of Putnam county visited relatives in White county.

Miss Maggie Baker visited Miss Addie Whiteaker recently.

Misses Maggie and Lola Baker were guests of Miss Alice Eller Sunday night.

Mrs. Maggie Bell Walker visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Weaver, Saturday night.

Margaret Ann and Mary Lou Baker visited at Jesse Whiteaker's the last of last week.

Hello, Lillie Allen, we would like to hear from you.

ADDIE WHITEAKER.

Void, Route 1

Jim Whitaker is having a very hard time carrying butter, eggs and chickens to Monterey.

A. P. Robison and son, George, are putting up a mill in the W. M. Henry hollow.

W. M. Henry is running a nice Sunday school at Rocky Point.

MOSSY BASKET.

Lee Daws has purchased the house and lot of Prof. S. B. Yeargan on West Main St.